Subject: The 17th International Conference of the Asia-Pacific Society for Ethnomusicology
College of Music, Maharakham University, Thailand, January 7-9, 2014

Dear Prof. Dr. Victor Ganap,

On behalf of the Programme Committee of The 17th International Conference of the Asia-Pacific Society for Ethnomusicology (APSE), at the College of Music, Maharakham University, I am very much delighted to invite you to this conference, which will run from January 7 to 9, 2014.

As the representative of Prof. Dr. R.M. Soedarsono, a member of the APSE Executive Board, we are pleased to inform you that the Conference Committee shall be providing you the following:

- 1) round trip airfare ticket from your city to Bangkok (Suvarnabhumi Airport), and a connecting local flight to Khon-Kaen Airport, Thailand.
- 2) transportation from Khon Kaen Airport to hotel in Maharakham
- 3) waiver of conference registration fee, and
- 4) hotel accommodation and meals.

Lastly, we will appreciate it very much if you can send the abstract of your paper as soon as possible. We will be publishing the abstracts together with the programme for distribution during the conference.

Please see the conference website (<http://apse2014.msu.ac.th/> - regrets, still under construction) for details of announcements, abstracts, conference program, and other matters.

We will be most delighted to welcome you here at Maharakham. Please let me know if you have further queries. If it is not convenient for you to participate, please recommend us the name of person to be your representative as the APSE executive board member for this conference and the future conferences.

Sincerely,

Asst. Prof. Dr. Jarernchai Chonpairot
